ISSUED TO MEMBERS OF THE SUSSEX RECORD SOCIETY AS AN EXTRA VOLUME FOR THE YEAR 1915.

1286730 PREFACE.

HORSHAM is a parish and town, and formerly a Parliamentary Borough, in the Rape of Bramber in the County of Sussex. Cartwright states that "The parish of Horsham is bounded on the east by St. Leonard's Forest as part of Beeding, on the south-east by Nuthurst and a detached part of Broadwater, on the south by Shipley, and on the south-west by Itchingfield, on the west by Broadbridge as part of Sullington, on the north-west by Warnham, and on the north by Rusper."¹

No. 1 Register Book of Horsham is a paper volume which clearly at one time began in 1538, when Parish Registers were first ordered to be kept, although in consequence of the loss of sixteen leaves at the commencement the first entry now remaining is dated February 25th, 1540-1. The last entry now remaining is dated October 15th, 1563,² but the book doubtless continued in use until circa 1598, when, in compliance with the Order made on October 25th, 1597, the entries were copied into a new parchment Register Book, from the first year of Elizabeth, viz., November 17th, 1558. That the first volume was in use on February 14th, 1591-2, appears from a memorandum written by the Baptism of one "Katerine Fyste," dated May 12th, 1561, wherein it is stated that "Kateren maryed after Mr Jo. Rhodes, a clarke, of this parish, & having 2 children at a burden dyed the 14 of Feb., 1591, as appeereth in y^e burialls at the end of this booke."

In 1878, when I copied the Register, and then forming part of the original book, were bound in the remains of about as many leaves as those still extant. The leaves of this book were carefully repaired and rebound in 1889, when the useless bound in fragments were removed. The re-binding is recorded in the volume in the handwriting of the Rev. Dr. Charles John Robinson, who was Vicar from 1887 to 1894, in the following words:—

“This volume, found in a torn and neglected condition, was repaired and bound in the year 1889 at the British Museum. Charles J. Robinson, Vicar. C. R. Scrase Dickins, F. W. E. Kinneir, Alf. W. Rawlinson, Churchwardens.”

During the eleven years intervening between the time when I made my transcript and the re-binding, the leaves, both at the beginning and end of the book, had been considerably worn away, consequently parts of some of the entries had been lost, but these I was able to supply in MS. to Dr. Robinson, who had them bound up in the volume. The front only of the original cover remains—it is of parchment, bearing on both sides black letter writing, and is apparently a leaf from an old service book. There is also part of a fly-leaf of parchment, made from an old deed. The volume now consists of one hundred and thirty-one paper leaves, measuring $12\frac{1}{2}$ inches high by $8\frac{1}{4}$ inches wide, and at the end about half a leaf, torn perpendicularly, and fragments of two others. There are twenty-eight leaves missing, besides those now wanting at the end.

This Register Book appears for the most part to have been written up periodically, probably from notes made de die in diem. The three descriptions of entries are mixed, being entered in the order in which they occurred; they are numbered consecutively, starting afresh in each year, the entries being differentiated by a W, for wedding, being placed by each Marriage; a C, for christening, by each Baptism; and a B by each Burial. The leaves were originally numbered in folios, and from these folio numbers and the annual numbering of the entries it can be determined, in most instances, how many entries the missing leaves contained. The lacunæ are as follows:—The first folio upon which the number now remains is 24. It is preceded by three leaves, the first three now remaining, but from the annual numbering it appears that sixty-six entries (Marriages, Baptisms and Burials) are missing between the last of the three leaves and folio 24, viz., from June 19th, 1541, to March 3rd, 1541-2. The average number of entries to a page at this date is from seven to nine, so that the missing entries probably occupied eight pages or four leaves; these, with the three leaves before folio 24, amount to seven, and it is thus clear that the first leaf now remaining was folio 17, which in turn shews that sixteen leaves are lost from the commencement of the volume. The next leaf lost is folio 51, containing the entries from February 17th, 1546-7, to May 13th, 1547. The number of entries missing cannot be ascertained, as the leaf contained those for the end of one year and the beginning of the next; the last on folio 50 is numbered 83, and the first on folio 52 is numbered 14. The next hiatus consists of two leaves, viz., folios 64 and 65; these contained forty-three entries, from August 14th, 1549, to January 18th, 1549-50. Folio 106 is also wanting; it contained fifteen entries from December 31st, 1556, to January 29th, 1556-7. The following leaves are also lost, viz., folio 123, containing twenty-five entries, from June 1st to July 31st, 1559; folio 128, containing twenty entries (Baptisms and Burials only), from March 4th, 1559-60, to March 25th, 1560; and finally folios 143 and 144, containing forty-six entries (Marriages, Baptisms and Burials), from March 23rd, 1561-2, to July 29th, 1562. The missing entries, dating after November 16th, 1558, are supplied from the 1598 Transcript (No. 2 Register Book). The leaf forming folio 60 had been stuck in the book with the edge to the binding, and this was unfortunately perpetuated when the volume was rebound. With the exception of the missing entries supplied from the 1598 Transcript, the Register is printed from No. 1 Book until its termination on October 15th, 1563, but all important variations appearing in the Transcript are noted.

At the top of folio 97d., viz., between the entries for August and September, 1555, is written "Jhs, Marcy Lady, a^o 1555." The order made in that year by Cardinal Pole, with reference to entering the names of the god-parents, was strictly followed. These commence on May 8th, 1556, and are continued up to the breaking off of the volume in 1563, with the exception of one year, viz., from March 26th, 1557, to April 11th, 1558. In transcribing the Baptisms into No. 2 Register Book, the names of the sponsors were omitted. Some of the Marriages in this book (No. 1) are entered in a very full way, such as one on July 19th, 1552, and another on January 24th, 1554-5; it is not improbable that the facts were obtained from the marriage licences. An interesting feature in this book is that some person, possibly John Rhodes, previously mentioned (who was parish clerk in the latter part of the sixteenth century, but who is called "a deacon" on September 20th, 1593), made notes in the margin by some of the entries, more especially the Baptisms, from which it would seem that the entries so distinguished referred to persons who grew up. Frequently initials only were added, but sometimes the name of the person, and in a few instances the annotations mention whom the person married and what position he occupied later in life.

In 1555 and the following year the amount of the burial fee has been entered against some of the Burials, usually "j^d," occasionally "ij^d," while "iiij^d" was paid for the burial of "Wyllm. Stanforde" on April 13th, 1556. From 1560, notes have been added to a few of the burial entries, such as "mor. p^d 3^s 4^d" to the burial of "Joan Storer, mayde," on May 29th, 1560, and "debit mortuarium 6^s 8^d; Solutum," to the burial of "Nycolas Mychell, vir," on March 1st, 1560-1; all such notes are omitted in the 1598 Transcript in No. 2 Register Book. A good many Latin descriptions, such as virgo, puer, occur in the entries from 1560 to 1576.

No. 2 Register Book is a substantial volume of three hundred and seventy-six original parchment leaves, measuring $11\frac{3}{4}$ inches high and $7\frac{3}{4}$ inches wide, supplemented at a later date by the addition of nineteen paper ones ; of these, sixteen have been inserted in one place and three in another. Six parchment leaves have been cut out. This Book, which is still in the original vellum covers, embraces the period from November 17th, 1558, to June 27th, 1717, Marriages; to August 12th, 1708, Baptisms; and September 25th, 1709, Burials. The entries on the paper leaves are also recorded in No. 3 Register Book, which commences in 1704, Marriages, and in 1697, Baptisms and Burials, but it is unnecessary to deal further with this Book on the present occasion. I have for convenience called No. 2 Register Book "The 1598 Transcript," as it contains the register copied at or about that date, although it continued in use for many years after, as stated above. The heading on page 1 is as follows:—

"The Register Booke of all the Christenynges Weddings and Burialls w^{ch} have bene in the Parische of Horsham since the begynnyng of the most happy reigne of our moste gracious Sovereigne Lady Quene Elizabeth, newe written into this booke according to an article agreed on in the Convocation of the Clergie of England in Anno Dni. 1597 and ratified by her Mat^y under the greate seale of England by her gracious P^{res} patent^{es} bearinge date at West^r in the xvijth Day of January in the xlth yere of her Highnes reigne, The Tenyr of w^{ch} article ensueth in theis words."

Here follows the Article in Latin, which is signed:—

"Ex. per Matth: Allein, Vicarium."

Subsequently this Book appears, as in the case of No. 1, to have been written up annually. It is not improbable that James Alleyn, or Allen, Notary Public, brother of Matthew Allen, who was Vicar from 1574 until 1605, may have had something to do with it. The full way in which some of the entries relating to members of the Allen family are recorded suggests this, especially the long entry in Latin recording the burial of his wife on March 29th, 1614. In 1611 and later, however, the Register was written by Thomas Forman, "parish clarke," who is so described in an entry of baptism, dated November 26th, 1610, and also in the Churchwardens' Accounts. These Accounts commence in 1611, and it appears from them that Thomas Forman was paid in that year "for writing the Register, o^r Booke of Land scot, and o^r Accompts iiij^s," and similar entries occur in subsequent years. In 1632, "It. p^d for writing and engrosing of o^r Register & Accomptes and for writinge the Register to send to Chichester v^s vj^d;" the latter refers to the Bishop's Transcripts. In the following year Thomas Forman was paid "for writing the Registers," etc. It is not improbable that the writing up of the Register once a year, possibly from contemporary notes hurriedly made, or in part from memory, may account for the fact that the names of the wives given in some of the seventeenth-century baptisms do not always agree with other entries apparently relating to the same persons. In some instances attention is called to these apparent discrepancies in foot-notes.

From the commencement of this book the entries were grouped under three separate headings, viz., Marriages, Baptisms and Burials, and those copied from No. 1 Register Book were sorted for the purpose. The only hiatus in the parchment portion of the Volume occurs in the Baptisms for the year 1659, half a leaf having been torn out perpendicularly, so that the first half only of each of the entries of Baptism from April 3rd, 1659, to December 4th remains, while the second half only of those from the latter date until the entry of Baptism of a child born February 22nd, 1659-60.

One of the sixteen paper leaves already referred to, commencing with the record of a birth on June 14th, 1697, has been torn out and lost, with the exception of a small piece of the upper part. The last entry upon the leaf must have been dated December 21st, 1698, as appears from the Baptisms for this period, which are among those also recorded in No. 3 Book. No. 2 Book, which is in excellent preservation, except that it requires resewing, is well written down to the year 1678; from that date to 1692 fairly so, but afterwards very badly.

The only instance, prior to 1636, of the Register being signed by the Vicar and Churchwardens, is for the year ending March 24th, 1632-3, when the Marriage, Baptism and Burial Sections were each certified in that way.

It was in the year 1878, as previously stated, that I copied the Parish Register of Horsham, viz., from its commencement in 1541, transcribing the Marriages to 1753 and the Baptisms and Burials to 1760, but with no intention of publication. It is from a portion of this copy that the entries from 1541 to 1635 are here printed. The Marriages, Baptisms and Burials from the first year of the reign of Elizabeth, viz., from November 17th, 1558, were carefully checked, prior to going to press with No. 2 Register Book, but it did not seem necessary to follow the same course with reference to the copy of No. 1 Register Book, 1541 to 1563. This, however, was done subsequently, but not until after the Marriages and part of the Baptisms for the above period had been printed, which accounts for the Corrigenda necessary in certain parts of the printed Register. Having had considerable experience, I would here say how important it is that the Editor of a Parish Register should either have it in his possession while engaged upon the work, or reside near the place of its custody, so that reference can be made to the original at any time and as often as required during the progress of printing.

In preparing the entries for the press, the original spelling has been followed, and every endeavour made to keep to the original text as much as possible. All words printed in an abbreviated form are as in the Register, but unnecessary verbiage, such as "was baptized the . . . day of," etc., is omitted, and the date placed at the commencement of each entry. Capital letters have been used in accordance with modern rule; abbreviated Latin words have been expanded. In brief, the portion of each entry printed follows the original, subject to the above statement and so far as type will permit.

The Bishop's Transcripts preserved in the Bishop of Chichester's Registry have been consulted, and the entries in the Register compared with them. With the exception of returns for the years 1584 and 1611, there are none until 1630.¹ In a few instances entries are found in the Bishop's Transcripts which do not appear in the Register;² these are set in italics; also any important variations in the spelling of names have been inserted in the text in italics within brackets. Conversely, some entries in the Register are not to be found in the Bishop's Transcripts; in every such instance a footnote to that effect has been added.

The following is a list of the Bishop's Transcripts for Horsham extant prior to March 27th, 1662—a total of eleven annual returns, all of which are on paper. The first, for the year 1584, is mutilated and imperfect: Marriages, month gone, but April or May 3rd to November 16th; Baptisms, April 2nd to 1584-5, March 20th; Burials, March 30th to 1584-5, March 10th. The rest are for the following years: 1610-11, March 14th, to 1611-12, March 17th; 1630, March 29th, to 1630-1, March 23rd; 1632, March 25th, to 1635-6, March 18th; 1637, March 26th, to 1640-1, March 23rd; the return for 1635 is damaged.

There are many items of interest to be gleaned from the Register outside the recording of Marriages, Baptisms and Burials, and to some of these I now proceed to call attention.

The references to the periodical visitations of the Plague have more than a local interest. It appears from entries of baptisms in 1574, that from September 24th to December 10th four children were christened in adjoining parishes, "for y^t y^e plague was then in this parishe," and on October 10th a Horsham couple were married at Itchingfield for the same reason. Following the burial on May 9th, 1604, of "Agnes y^e wife of Willm. Collingborne," are the words

¹ There is a seventeenth-century return in the bundle containing the Horsham ones, without date or place, but I have identified it as the return for Steyning for the years 1615 and 1615-16.

² See three baptisms dated March 25th, 1635, and others.

"The first y^t died of the plague." On the 19th of the same month "John Collingbourne" was buried, and on the 21st "William Collingborne, the father, and George the sonne, out of that house," and on the 25th "W^m Collingborne, a boye." There are no further references to it in that year, but the Plague of 1609 seems to have been particularly severe at Horsham. The first person then recorded as dying "of the plague" was one "Blanch Dungate, widdow," who was buried February 28th, 1608-9. In March there are nine burials with the addition "of the plague," and of forty-four persons buried in the succeeding three months, thirty-seven are recorded as dying from the same complaint. Following the burials for the year ending March 24th, 1609-10, is this note: "Sepulti hoc anno 77, of the plague since the 28 of February last past 1608,¹ 48." There is no death from this epidemic recorded after June 21st, 1609, until July 29th, 1610, when "Robert Peter, a child," was buried, "suposed of the plague." From September 7th until November 16th, out of twenty-six burials seven are entered as "of the plague," but after the latter date there is no further reference to the pestilence.

A marriage "w^{thin} my L. of Chichester cappell at Chisworth" is recorded on August 25th, 1578. A few marriages are entered as being celebrated at other places, as "in the chyrch of Polborowgh" on July 2nd, 1548; "in the paryshe of Warnham" on February 17th, 1548-9; "in the chyrche of Warnham," October 7th, 1548; "in the chyrche of Stenyng" on July 13th, 1551; "at Sharmanburie" on September 20th, 1593; at Bolney on June 14th, 1584; at Itchingfield on January 30th, 1597-8, "because the Vicar of this church was absent," also on April 13th, 1612; and at Warnham on December 3rd, 1604, "were [where] lycensed." Two parishioners of Sullington were "married in this parish by request, for y^t their owne parish is farr of," on August 7th, 1575.

In a few instances besides those already mentioned, baptisms are recorded as having taken place at other churches; among these are at Warnham on May 29th, 1581; at Itchingfield, May 19th, 1596; and at Rusper on February 5th, 1575-6, January 20th, 1599-1600, and May 20th, 1604. In each of these cases "by licence" is added, and to the first Rusper one in addition "the wayes & wether beinge foule," while to the last one "by lycense of the Vicar of Horsham." This probably means that the leave or permission of the vicar was obtained before taking the child out of the parish to be baptized. A child of Horsham parishioners was also baptized at Maresfield on March 29th, 1610. Conversely, children born in other parishes were now and then baptized at Horsham, inter alia, on July 21st, 1576, "because ye parish of Beding is furre off," and again on February 20th, 1619-20. The parish church of Beeding, otherwise Seale, is several miles away, near Steyning. Anne daughter of William Stone of Dorking was "bapt. heere" on August 24th, 1612. On May 24th, 1632, John son of Henry Ockenden was baptized, who was "brought from Nuthurst being sick, and by reason that there Minister was not at home."

An early instance of private baptism is recorded on April 26th, 1579, when "John Lunsford, the sonne of John Lunsford, gent.," was "bapt. at Mr Apsley his howse at Stamerham."

There are seven baptisms recorded as taking place on November 11th, 1592, an unusual event, to which attention is called by writing in the margin "7 bapt. in one day." On September 16th, 1598, was baptized "Robert, the sonne of Robert Nightingall of Greene, by Alice his wife, borne here by chance as she cam to markett," while on August 1st, 1612, was buried "Ursley Mascall, gent., of Wilsfield, who dyed in this Towne in hir jorney riding to a wedding."

One "John Nye, gent., howsehoulder," is recorded on October 13th, 1626, as "buried at Slinfold," and on February 11th, 1630-1, "John Clowser, houshoulder," was "buried at Warnham," while on May 13th, 1628, "Edward Stanford, houshoulder," was "brought from Slinfould." In the burial entry of "Jane Gardner y^e doughter of W^m Gardner," who was buried September 8th, 1557, her baptism is also recorded as "beinge christened at Rusper y^e 27 daye of August affore." On June 26th, 1625, "Bartholmew Cooke, a poor man," was "buried at Rohie," that is Roffey, a hamlet in Horsham, where it would seem there was no burial ground. "Willm. Filthika," and another, whose name is not recorded, were buried "upon the heath" on July 14th, 1568, as also a "poore wandring girle" on March 11th, 1608-9. Married couples were buried "in one grave" on January 13th, 1598-9, and on March 2nd, 1600-1, while on August 11th, 1594, was "laied into the ground, to be vewed by the Coroner, John Budd, a child y^t was drowned."

The birth and baptism of triplets is recorded on June 16th, 1541; on January 4th, 1580-1, were "bapt. & buried Mathewe, John, & Mary, the three twynes of Willm. Slater, at one burden;" while the three children of John Haylor met the same fate on October 18th, 1626.

Several French people seem to have settled at Horsham in the sixteenth century. Some of these can be referred to through the Index, under Frenchman and Gallicus, and perhaps also under Stranger, but in many of the entries relating to French people they are not always so indicated.

Two of the special industries which were flourishing in the County in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries are mentioned, viz., those of iron and glass. "Gilbert Rycrofte, a laborer in the Iron Workes," was buried November 1st, 1584, and on November 19th, 1608, "John Thomas, a poore boy," was buried, "w^{ch} died at Warnam Fornace." Another "poore boy that dyed at the Fornaise" was buried December 31st, 1614; "John Norwood, a hamerman," was buried on April 1st, 1614, and on February 3rd, 1614-15, "Richard Praye, a forgerman, of St. Lenords."¹ The digging of the ore, or mine, is mentioned indirectly, for on April 11th,

An early reference to gypsies occurs under date July 1st, 1577, when "Jane y^e daughter of George Volantyne and Margeret his wife, beinge rogues naming themselves Egiptians," was baptized.

Horsham Gaol, sometimes called the Prison or the House of Correction, is not infrequently mentioned, and entries relating to prisoners are common, as may be seen by reference to the Index, while executions are sometimes recorded. Among the more interesting of these references are the following:—At the end of the Burials for the years 1586 and 1586-7 is this note:—"The prisoners y^t died in y^e goale at Horsham this yeare, and buried in y^e churchyard, were not made knowen unto the Vicar & therefore are not here entred." From the fact that the Vicar was not informed, it would seem that the prisoners were executed

² Foister, fuster, a maker of saddle trees or frames. Foister also means a cheat or pickpocket, but the meaning here is obviously the trade.

and buried without any service. On June 15th, 1541, "Rycherd Sowton of Nuthyrst, for coynynge of moneye, was hangyd att Horsham & buryed." Under date July 29th, 1606, is this entry: "Buried 5 prisoners, all executed the same day, viz., Thomas Welch, Simon Ayers, Marget Squire, Robert Planer & Elisabeth Waterman." On July 18th, 1614, "John Davis, a prisoner, executed," was buried, and on May 1st, 1620, "Elizabeth Howell, a prisoner, executed," was buried, while on March 25th, 1626, "William Fludd and William Osborne, prisoners, executed," were buried. The executions probably took place in the town, but that this was not always the case is proved by the burial, on October 10th, 1608, of "Laurence Lambert alias Ounsteede, & Richard Harris, both prisoners, executed on the Heath." On July 28th, 1602, "William the sonne of John Good, a prisoner condemned in the gaole," was baptized.

Recorded instances of longevity are not numerous. "Margaret Lydseye, wydow, a woman of the age of one hundred yeres & fowre," was buried on December 2nd, 1555; on May 23rd, 1553, "Wyllm. Hunt, a man that was iiij yeres of age at the death of Kynge Henrye the Syxt," and to the entry is added, in a later hand, "aged 97," which is incorrect, and should really be 86 or 87.¹

Among the entries in which miscellaneous and unusual descriptions occur are the following. "Agnes Wetyng, wydow, late drye norse in the house of the Duke of Norfolke," buried August 30th, 1542; and one John Neave, buried November 17th, 1613, is called "an ould informer;"² while there is a curious double description in the burial entry dated January 16th, 1614-15, of "Thomas Michell, gent., an ould preacher." The annotator of some of the entries in No. 1 Register Book, already mentioned, wrote by the baptism of one "John Blackephan," dated November 12th, 1559, "Jo. Blackefan, M^r of Artes & a Papist in A^o

² Possibly one of the numerous informers under the Penal Laws. Burn in his History of Parish Registers, records the burial on June 2nd in the same year, at St. Giles, Durham, of "John Trotter, an Informer."

1580;" and to the succeeding entry, dated the 30th of the same month, of one "W^m Tuckeney," he added "W. Tucky, M^r of Artes & a Cristian Preacher."

Deaths from misadventure and violence, of which there are several, can also be referred to through the Index, under that title. Among the more curious may be mentioned the burial of "John Kinge, an infant, drowned in a tanne fate," on April 21st, 1583; also of "a child drowned in a tub of water," June 18th, 1598; and on September 22nd, 1621, "Thomas Hilder, a stripling, by drinking aquavite." Another entry informs us that the Maypole was in use at Horsham, for on May 21st, 1582, was buried "John Rowe als. Sparrowe, killed wth y^e fall of a May pole, as it was a settinge up." The steeple of the church was struck by lightning in 1615, as appears from the burial on August 19th in that year of "Elizabeth Stroode, a mayde y^t was killed with lightening when the steple was fired, shee standing under the belfrey door."

Among unusual Christian names are the following: Male—Albion Bristowe, Colletes Perigo, Early Deane, Erosimus Wilford, Euticus Delton, Fortunatus Butcher, Leander Willoughby, Mardocheus Amye, Pacco de Browne, Peritonus Brimsted and Zacharias Knowles. Female—Benedick Jordan, Carefull Simonds, Charity Foster, Eglantine Catt (also Cheesman), Feres, Ferres, Ferris or Pherris Bushnell (also Worsfould), Fortune Challoner, Grisell Nash, Lament Weekes, Philip Bellingham, Phillip Champion, Repentance Champion, Sindone Bett, Syndona Brodley, Timothie Stemp and Venus Long (also Pike). Nicknames occasionally occur, such as "Simon Purlonger alias Nimbole, a bayly;" William Brown called "Brown the begger;" "Dome Agnes, of y^e Normandy;" Anne Milles alias "Domme Nanne," and John Longe called "Black John."

I have prepared one general Index (instead of separate indexes of persons and places), in which the professions, trades, and descriptions of persons are included, as also the more important subject references; a special plan, which it is believed will be found very useful, has been adopted in dealing with the names of married women and illegitimate children. For further details see p. 409.

In conclusion, the grateful thanks of the Society are due to the Rev. John Bond, Vicar of Horsham, for permitting me to check my MS. with the original Register, and to William B. B. Freeland, Esq., Diocesan Registrar, for kindly granting me facilities for examining the Bishop's Transcripts. I am also personally indebted to W. Paley Baildon, Esq., F.S.A., for many valuable suggestions, and for kindly assisting me whilst passing the work through the press; nor should I omit to mention the facilities afforded me in 1878 by the late Rev. John Fisher Hodgson, then Vicar, for making my transcript.

¹ "Jy" is probably intended to be deleted. "Love, a beloved person: especially a sweetheart; chiefly applied to a female person, but sometimes to a male" (see A New English Dictionary, edited by J. A. H. Murray, article "Love"). The term also appears to have been sometimes applied to a widow. It is occasionally met with in sixteenth century wills, e.g. Robert Benet, the younger, of Storrington, co. Sussex, butcher, by his will dated September 23, 1555, proved in the Consistory Court of Chichester January 13, 1555-6 (vol. viii, fo. 161 b), bequeaths "To Byne's love iiij^d." John Shoo of Ockley, co. Surrey, yeoman, by his will dated May 10, 1557, proved in P.C.C. July 15, 1557 (Wrastley, fo. 24), bequeaths "To Robert Cunstable xx^d. Item I give to Cunstable's love xx^d To Stere's love xx^d. Item I give to Symys wief xx^d." Nicholas Butt of West Clandon, co. Surrey, yeoman, by his will dated August 10, 1557, proved in P.C.C. August, 20, 1557 (Wrastley, fo. 29), bequeaths "To Jenden's love one busshele of wheate."

² This is the last marriage in No. 1 Register Book. The subsequent marriages are from the 1598 transcript, No. 2 Register Book. There are not any entries of marriages for the months of October, November and December, 1563, in the 1598 transcript, which is curious, as the baptisms and burials for those months are numerous. It would seem that No. 1 Register Book was in use down to a much later date, for until it was rebound in the year 1889 there were remains at the end of many torn-off leaves, apparently about as many as those now preserved.

HORSHAM PARISH REGISTER,

1541 to 1635,

MARRIAGES, BAPTISMS, AND BURIALS.

GENERAL INDEX.

The names of all persons are set in Roman type ; all variants of surnames are given, with cross references to the more important.

The surnames in brackets, thus "[Smith]" after female Christian names, give the other surnames of married women. The surnames in brackets, with a mark of interrogation thus "[? Smith]," shew the name of the other parent of illegitimate children, when the names of both parents are given.

Surnames are indexed under the spelling which is the nearest to modern usage, and the same, with some exceptions, applies to the spelling of Christian names. Harry, Ann and Annis, are indexed under Henry and Anne respectively.

Names of places, professions and trades, descriptions of persons (omitting such as "householder," "man," "woman," etc.), general, and all other matters, are set in italics. In the case of names of places all the more important variants are separately indexed, with cross references to the modern spelling, e.g., "Hedge & fylde. See Itchingfield."

Where a name occurs more than once on a page, the number of occurrences is given in parentheses after the number of the page. When a surname is probably but not certainly a variant of another, a cross reference is added.

Variations from the text of the original Register, occurring in the 1598 transcript (No. 2 Register Book), viz., from November 17, 1558, until October 15, 1563, the period for which they are in duplicate, are given in brackets, with a foot-note in every case. Additional entries obtained from the Bishop's Transcripts, are set in italics, and important variations in the spelling of names are also inserted in the text, in italics, within brackets. See further as to above in the Preface.

The more important items in the Corrigenda are incorporated in the index.
